

Committee Name: Health Technology Expert Review Panel (HTERP)

Dr. Jean-Éric Tarride — Conflict of Interest Disclosure (June 2021)

Dr. Tarride has received research funding or grants from AssureRx and Myriad, Boehringer Ingelheim, and Edwards Lifesciences for various health technology assessments, economic evaluations, and burden-of-illness studies.

Jean-Éric has also been compensated by AstraZeneca, Amgen, Janssen, Merck, and Novartis as a consultant or advisor on health technology assessment and market access including study design, cost-effectiveness, and reimbursement issues; and on various products in the area of therapeutics (e.g., cardiovascular, diabetes, respiratory, oncology, ophthalmology).