Marsha Cusack — Conflict of Interest Disclosure (February 2020)

Marsha received honorariums from AstraZeneca for educational lectures on inhaled therapies for chronic obstructive pulmonary disease and asthma from 2018 to 2019. She also received honorariums from her husband, a family physician, for facilitation of educational events in his family practice clinic.

Marsha received payment as an advisor or consultant from the Innomar Clinic in Prince Edward Island, where she has been retained on call on a monthly basis for medical issues from 2017 to the present. Her husband, a family physician, has also been retained on a monthly basis since 2017 for on-call medical issues arising for patients in the clinic, which is adjacent to his family practice.
